

Question:

Where does an outstandingly versatile, well-rounded person who performs brilliantly in many different fields turn when they need assistance?

Answer:

The Yeshiva University Renaissance Man Resource Center

Inventors, artisans, writers, scientists, explorers and out-of-the-box thinkers who might be looking for special help can now, for the first time ever, have a place to turn. The Renaissance Man Resource Center has willing and able staff available and ready to do whatever they are able to do to assist a Renaissance Man type person in moving their projects forward.

The Yeshiva University Renaissance Man Resource Center services are available at no charge to anyone anywhere. It is made possible through generous grants from the following: The Dora and Gabriel Spero Memorial Foundation, Geoffrey Drew Marketing Inc. and The National Protégé Enterprise. Any institute of higher learning or organization in the non-profit or governmental sectors is invited to host a branch of The Renaissance Man Resource Center, which Yeshiva University will help launce at no charge save for incidental expenses.
